Newchurch is a fair type of the village nestling in the Garden Isle of great age and rose-clad cottages. It is situated about two miles by rail from Sandown.

Printed in England.

Thanks for note. "The Lilies" is very much Northeward and I had only one view of Clacton the Coal of Arms glad you are keeping well and enjoying yourself. All are well here Dick and Aunt sends kind regards and she has such good news of Marcel from Maryland who is coming to book a treat with your rose to you and Mrs J. love to you and yours sincerely E.J.
